Intragroup revenues and Other Income	(5.0)		(11.0)
Group revenues	67.2	10%	143.9	18%

The key drivers in the second quarter were as follows:

- Insurance continued to grow and we are noting a marginal increase in car insurance premiums.
- Money delivered ongoing growth from a highly competitive credit card market, and some competition in the current account market with providers offering attractive switching incentives.
- Energy benefited from the growing adoption of energy collective switches.
- Moneysavingexpert.com continued to deliver a strong performance helped by a more mobile and responsive website.
